The people that do know their God shall be strong and do exploits.

Daniel 11:32.

Dedication

In warm appreciation of his untiring faithfulness we dedicate our annual to Rev. R. Wesley Affleck. His devotion to the Lord and his teaching have influenced many lives in the training of young people for a life of service.

Parting Words

It seems that the time has come for me to say "Farewell" to dear old WBI, where I have spent the better part of my life, first as a student and then as a teacher. I look back with much pleasure on more than thirty years of fellowship and ministry in the school. During those years I have had happy associations with a number of the Lord's choice servants, as together we have endeavoured to teach the best Book in the world and have sought to guide dedicated young people into fruitful areas of Christian service.

To have had the privilege of taking part in the training of more than four hundred of the WBI graduates is one for which I am humbly grateful. I count many of them among my dearest and truest friends. It was such a joy to visit some twenty-five of them in thirteen mission fields in the summer of 1962. The memories of this tour, made possible by the kindness and generosity of the Alumni, are still fresh in my mind.

It was a further joy, in the past summer, to visit some fifty former students and graduates across Western Canada. This gave me opportunity to tell of the missionary tour they had helped to make possible, and to show them pictures of their fellow-alumni and their work on many mission fields.

The tour of last summer was climaxed by a visit to our Canadian northland, where a number of the graduates are serving under the Northern Canada Evangelical Mission. I was carried across northern Alberta and Saskatchewan in one of the Mission planes, piloted by Edwin Hickey, one of our graduates.

Though I am leaving WBI, I shall still take a prayerful interest in its future ministry and progress, and shall look forward to meeting fellow-alumni from time to time.

Mr. R. W. Affleck.

Doctrinal Statement

The College holds and teaches the essential doctrines of the Christian Faith as embraced by the great evangelical bodies. The doctrinal statement is as follows:—We believe in . . .

- 1. The verbal-plenary inspiration and divine authority of both the Old and New Testaments in the original manuscripts. II Tim. 3:16; II Peter 1:21.
- 2. The one living and true God, an eternally existent Trinity of three Persons: The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, equal in every respect and executing distinct but harmonious offices in the activities of the Godhead. Psa. 90:2; Matt. 28:18-19; John 10:30; Acts 5:3, 4.
- 3. The Genesis account of creation as factual and historic and that man was created directly by God. Gen. 1:1, 26, 27; Col. 1:16.
- 4. The temptation and fall of man, as recorded in Genesis, with the consequent depravity of all mankind and liability to eternal punishment for sin. Rom. 3:10, 19-20, 5:12; Eph. 2:1-3.
- 5. The deity of Jesus Christ and that through His Virgin Birth, true humanity and undiminished deity were united in one Person forever. Matt. 1:23; Luke 1:35; John 1:1, 14; Heb. 7:24-25.
- 6. The substitutionary death of Christ for sinners, His shed blood being the only ground of forgiveness of sin, and His bodily resurrection and ascension to heaven as Lord of all. Rom. 4:25; I Cor. 15:3-6; Eph. 1:20-22; I Pet. 1:18-19; Acts 10:36.
- 7. The truth that men are accounted righteous before God, regenerated by the Holy Spirit, and given eternal life on the single condition of faith in Jesus Christ as personal Saviour. John 1:12, 10:28-29; Rom. 3:24; Titus 3:5.
- 8. The fact that every believer has perfect acceptance before God in Christ, and that the indwelling Holy Spirit enables him to lead a life of godliness. Rom. 5:2, 6:11-13; I Cor. 6:19; Titus 2:12.
- 9. The Church as the body of Christ which began at Pentecost and is a spiritual organism composed of all believers who are placed into that body by the baptism of the Holy Spirit. The local visible church is a manifestation of the universal church organized for the fellowship of believers and the continuation of Christ's work on earth. Rom. 12:5; I Cor. 12:12-13; Eph. 1:22-23, 5:21-33.
- 10. The personality of Satan and his associates, fallen through sin, whose activity is to thwart God's plan, for whom salvation is unavailable and the Lake of Fire is especially prepared. Isa. 14:12-17; Ezek. 28:11-19; II Cor. 4:3-4; I Pet. 5:8: Rev. 20:10; Matt. 25:41.
- 11. The resurrection of the bodies of the saints, the rapture of the church at the end of the present dispensation, the Tribulation followed by the premillennial return of Christ in glory, the resurrection of the bodies of the wicked, their judgment and eternal punishment. Matt. 24:29-31; Luke 1:30-33; I Cor. 15:50-58; I Thess. 4:13-18; Rev. 20:1-6, 11-15.
- 12. The responsibility of the saved to witness by life and word concerning Jesus Christ and to proclaim the Gospel to all the world. Matt. 28:19-20; Acts 1:8; II Cor. 5:19-21; Rev. 22:17.

President's Message

"The people that do know their God, shall be strong and do exploits" Daniel 11:32.

One of the greatest contributions of the Winnipeg Bible Institute to its students is making it possible for them to know their God. This is done in a two-fold way. First, the student is given the opportunity to attend class, study, and assimilate the facts concerning the Person and nature of God. A student may come, memorize all the facts, know all about God, and not really know his Lord. Yet knowing about God leads to a personal knowledge of God. Second the student is given opportunities to know the Lord experientially. All of school life is designed with the purpose of leading students to an intimate knowledge of the Lord. Chapel, prayer days, prayer meetings and individual quiet times are provided to cause the student to know the Lord. You can lead a horse to water, but you cannot make him drink. You can give a person every opportunity to know the Lord, but you cannot force him to drink.

1963-64 has been a great year, because faculty and students have come to know the Lord better. We have known Him through Christian service as lives were changed, we have known Him through prayer meetings as answers were received, and we have known Him through quiet times as He made Himself real to our lives.

Our year verse tells us that those who know their God shall be strong. The aim of Bible school is to build strong lives; strong in the Word of God, strong in faith, strong in service and strong in convictions.

1963-64 has been a great year because the faculty and students have been strengthened in their life and service. The twentieth century with perilous times and unpredictable days need young lives of strength.

"Do exploits." This is the challenge we have from God. If God's people know Him and if God's people are strong — then exploits will result.

This the twenty-fifth publication of The King's Herald portrays:

- 1. Students coming to know Him.
- 2. Students becoming strong.

Only the future can tell of exploits. In the next twenty-five years, I trust the students of W.B.I. 1963-64 will do exploits around the world because they have come to know Him in this school and have become strong.

The Student Council rejoices at the opportunity which we have had to serve the Lord in this position. We wish to thank each of the students for their co-operation in school activities. Many thanks are extended as well to those who blessed us with their spiritual ministry in chapel services. This year the student body has co-operatively participated in a missionary project — a gift of money for Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sheil in British Honduras to furnish their home. The Lord alone can measure the blessings of this endeavour.

Paul's testimony in Galatians 1:15, 16 was that God had set him apart from birth and called him for the specific purpose of revealing or disclosing His Son in him (Paul). We too, the students of W.B.I., trust that after this, another blessed year of studying the Word of God, Jesus Christ will be revealed in our earthen vessels. With this in mind we meet the challenge of the future — whether further study or service for Him.

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord" I Cor. 15:58.

What a wealth of meaning and love is contained in this verse — Steadfast, unmoveable. How wonderful to know that our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is steadfast, unmoveable. How precious too, to know that we are the beloved of the Lord.

It is the joy and privilege of your ladies to be vitally interested through intercessory prayer daily to our Heavenly Father, for each of you dear ones associated with W.B.I., that you will be kept in His loving care, and guided and directed into the very place He has chosen for you.

To Him be glory, both now and for evermore.

Christian Service

There is only one thing that is of comparative importance to knowing God's Word, and that is applying God's Word. The application of God's Word is paramount to salvation, to sanctification, and to service. The apostle James expressed it in a very concrete way when he said, "But be ye doers of the Word and not hearers only." (James 1:22.) Winnipeg Bible Institute is located in a metropolitan center, and thus provides many opportunities to engage in active Christian service.

True learning is accomplished when one has made an intelligent union of the theoretical with the practical. A student's work becomes more meaningful when he or she has the opportunity to practice what has been studied. This year we have students working in some twenty-eight churches. Some of the opportunities offered are: Gospel team work, prison and mission work, Sunday School teaching, student pastorates, children's work, and visitation. Some serve in the field of music by participating in the Chapel Choir, trios, quartets, and as instrumental ensembles. Each student has at least one Christian service assignment a week, and in the prayer meeting every Thursday, students share their work with one another and the Lord.

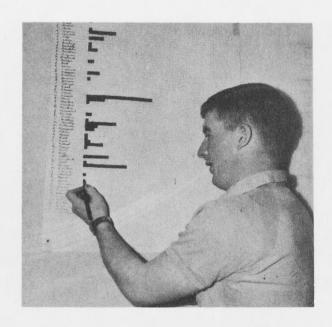

Although faith comes through a hearing of God's Word, we must also recognize the truth in the words of another: "Work makes faith sweet and strong." In the activities of Christian service, each student experiences the hand of God in humbling him, and in strengthening his faith.

Although prayer is a vital part of every Christian's life, we feel it is even more necessary for us as students of the Word. Therefore we as members of the Devotional Committee seek above all, to promote spiritual growth in each student and the school as a whole and to give spiritual guidance to those who may need it.

Daily prayer meetings are scheduled and interest and attendance at these are encouraged. Each semester classes are set aside for a day as students and faculty join together for a Day of Prayer. Missions are emphasized and the Committee seeks to stimulate interest and contact with missionaries, especially those who are graduates of the school, and to support them in prayer.

The poet Tennyson has said "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of" and we agree with him for we have witnessed many answers to prayer during the year. God is faithful as we "watch unto prayer."

Social

Socials at Bible School? Yes, social activities are a necessary part of Christian life. The work and planning done at the executive meetings were greatly rewarded as the students shared in the evenings of fun and fellowship. The social committee has planned various times of fun and fellowship, and at the same time gained full benefits of both at executive meetings.

After a prelude of eerie music, the lanky, uniquely-dressed M.C. pulled out of his black bag an evening of hilarious laughter of which skits, games, and costumes played an important part. Sloppy joes, applie pie, and punch brought a climax to a long-remembered Hallowe'en party.

Oh yes, we can't forget our Christmas Banquet. The committee laboriously struggled in an attempt to create a Christmas atmosphere in the dining hall — arraying it in semi-circular red, white, and gold streamers, quite unconscious of the fact that they might stretch. It's a good thing we were sitting!

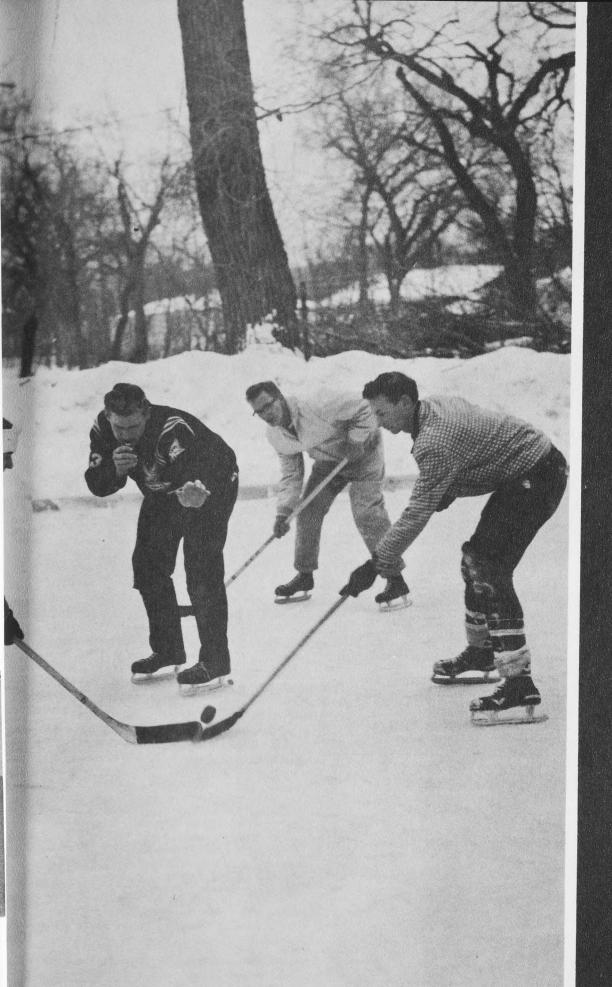

Volleyball tournament, student fellowships — yes, the social committee worked together to brighten your hours of study with fun and fellowship in a God-honouring way.

"Man, I never thought I'd ever get a chance like this . . ., say this is great! What did you say, Len? You have some reservations about going?! . . . Oh, you say it's a little "harder" for you to leave than for the rest of us!" These were some of the gleeful expressions that tumbled out into the excited atmosphere as Quartet Tour '63 began.

A solemn remark from one of the fellows brought us back to reality. He said, "You know, unless God can really work through us, this will only be a trip and not a tour that He can bless."

We were reminded of this many times as our theme, "An Open Bible For The World," signalled another service — one of the many which were held during the tour some fifteen thousand miles in length, across both Canada and the United States.

Not only a tour across the country, it was also a tour into the wonderful experience of God's blessing through the media of song and testimony.

As the quartet, we express our grateful appreciation to all who cared for us during our travels.

Summer Ministries

"Lord, what would you have me to do?" As summer rolls around, this is the question in many of the students' hearts at W.B.I. Last summer, several students were active at work, in V.B.S., and Sunday School. Child evangelism, evangelistic meetings, and pastoral assignments provided good training. Students in places of employment had many opportunities to witness for their Saviour. Each could testify of many blessed times, victories, and the necessity of a closer walk with Christ. The greatest reward of the summer activities was the privilege of seeing some soul come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

After the 9:55 bell has ended the second class period, there is a mass exodus to the chapel. Every day, Monday through Friday at this time, there is a half hour period set aside for chapel, which is a time of spiritual refreshing.

During the week, Monday through Thursday, we have the privilege of hearing different speakers. Some of these speakers are former W.B.I. graduates, missionaries, local pastors, and faculty members.

Every other Thursday is split chapel. At this time, the fellows and the girls each have their own meeting. Every Friday, the chapel time is organized and lead by the students.

This year, we have been able to have two groups from other Bible schools in Winnipeg come and lead our chapel period. This time of chapel exchange was a real blessing to us and to the other schools.

As we have listened to the different missionaries that come to us, we have been impressed again and again by the constant reminder that there is a very urgent need for full-time workers on the foreign mission field, as well as at home. We can see the growing need for workers.

Each one of us has been challenged many times by the speakers. As we look forward to graduation, we sincerely desire that each of us will find the will of God fulfilled in his life. We all want to be found faithful to God and obedient to His great commission.

As we sit in chapel, we are reminded by our year verse, which is posted in the front of our chapel: "The people that do know their God shall be strong and do exploits." 11:32b.)

"Go ye therefore into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" Mark 16:15. Our annual missionary conference was held from March fourth to the sixth. It was a time of rich blessings and fellowship with missionaries from various fields. Renewed emphasis was placed on the duty of Christian witnessing in obedience to Christ's command. Group prayer meetings were scheduled for each morning of the conference. The speakers for the first session each morning were Dr. Walvoord, President of the Dallas Theological Seminary; Dr. Steele, the Home Secretary for the North Africa Mission; and Dr. White, Associate General Secretary of the International Fellowship of Evangelical Students in Latin America. Their messages dealt with missions in relation to the Word, the world, and the worker. We also had the privilege of having with us during these days, Rev. Thomas Fagen, from the Western Christian Literature Crusade; Miss Tina Blatz, a member of the Janz Team in Europe; and Rev. David Affleck, a missionary in France with the Greater European Mission. The film, "Through Gates of Splendour," which brought our missionary conference to a close, was enjoyed by

It was also our opportunity to attend the evening services of the conference at Bethesda Church. Saturday evening, we enjoyed a time of discussions, testimonies, and special numbers at the Youth Rally sponsored by the Bethesda Young People. A delicious dinner was served to all! After the banquet, the film, "Sun and Shadow," was shown, depicting a Japanese youth's experience with communism and Christianity. This was followed by another inspiring message from Dr. White.

May it be our prayer at this time to say with Isaiah, "Here am I, send me."

The burden of sin on their hearts is greater than the burden on their heads.

"He will be our guide even unto death" Psalm 48:14.

Looking back I marvel at God's guiding hand upon my life. After being saved, He directed me to Miller Memorial Bible Institute at Pambrun, Saskatchewan. After graduation His leading me into children's work in rural Manitoba was further preparation for foreign missionary service. Then, through the ministry of Rev. E. V. Thompson, director of the West Indies Mission, the Lord guided me to serve Him with this mission.

The four and a half years spent in the Windward Islands, first in St. Lucia and later in Grenada, have tested my versatility and occasions to draw from Christ's all-sufficient grace have been times when Satan has sought to bring the Lord's work to nought through his subtle devices.

There have also been many joyous occasions when the power of God has been manifested in transforming lives. What a joy to see an elderly lady lose confidence in a leech and place her trust in Christ. Regular Bible study classes have demonstrated God's power being manifested in believers' lives by liquor centers being changed into grocery stores, or books of magic being replaced by the Bible, or a young Christian mother turning from her fetishes of snake skin and silver chains to trusting the Lord, for the safe-keeping of her family. Certainly our God is the God of omnipotence!

During my year of furlough I have been privileged to attend W.B.I. for one semester. As the Lord guides me back to Grenada in May, my desire is to be a clean channel through whom He can work unhindered. My prayer is that others will be challenged to have a part in the responsibility of sharing the Good News of salvation with those who as yet have not heard.

The finished product.

This school year we have had wonderful times of fellowship and recreation in sports activities.

In the fall, spare hours were filled up on the volleyball court. All were intermingled with fun and laughter as staff members and students joined together on this plain of battle.

Football took on a new incentive as students lined up against the faculty. We enjoyed our hardhitting games played in the Assiniboine Park.

As colder weather approached, we began to think of winter sports activities. We were thrilled when we learned that an ice rink at the school was a good possibility. With unregretably hard work, we soon had a sheet of ice behind the school. The thrills and spills were almost more than some of us could take, but we have each come through, more or less, in one piece. Four teams made up the ice-soccer competitions, while two teams competed in hockey. An outside team provided additional competition for our hockey stars.

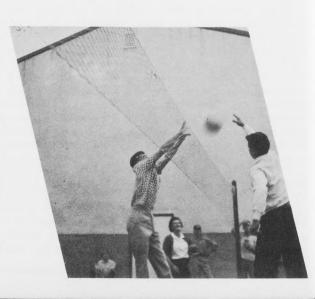

This winter, also, we were able to form a curling league within the school. Each Friday afternoon, at three o'clock, the brooms began to hiss and the rocks began to rumble as the eight rinks entered into close competition at the Granite Curling Club.

These activities eclipsed the usually great activity at the tennis table, but even so, a good amount of tennis has been played this year.

All of these physical activities have provided a good test of the skill and the character of the participants and have been profitable in many ways.

It is my duty at W.B.I. to provide food for the body, but I am also interested in food for the soul, and it has been convenient for me to attend night classes. The first semester in C. E. of Youth with Mr. Towns, I appreciated his practical teaching of the Word. One of the things he said was, that we often present the Word of God as if it were only some thing to die by instead of challenging youth with its being also some thing to live by.

This semester my class is Bible Survey with Mr. Hanna, and I expect it to increase my general knowledge of the Word of God. Join us at evening classes! We welcome you!

Over 70 graduates have found their place in the Winnipeg area. We have Alumni members in six provinces of Canada and 16 states of the United States of America. Others are in Mexico, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Bermuda, Jamaica, Haiti, British Honduras, Ecuador, Bolivia, Colombia, France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Northern Ireland, England, Australia, Philippine Islands, Thailand, India, Fiji Islands, Kenya, Ethiopia, S. Rhodesia, Niger, and Republic of Tchad. "The sun never sets on W.B.I. graduates."

Some have passed from this land to the Better Land. We wish to pay tribute to those who after a faithful life passed on to be with their Lord: John Bierworth, George Barkman, Emma (Gateson) Carlson, Susanne Plett, Nils Jacobsen, George Isaac Reine, Clara (Dyck) Roberts, John Kehler, Greta (McIntyre) Donagh, and Vaughan Steeves.

Over 53% of our alumni are in Christian Service: in missionary service 105, Pastors 75, pastors' wives 35, Bible teachers 9, church secretaries 5. Many others, of course, render a valuable service in the church while carrying on a different type of daily work.

The Lord has entrusted us with great responsibility and by His grace we will discharge it. W.B.I. has been the preparation ground for many individuals to be sent forth into the harvest field. We pass on the challenge to present and future students to continue and enlarge the ranks of those in active service for Christ.

"The people that do know their God shall be strong and do exploits" Daniel 11:32. To know Him! This is the longing of our hearts from the moment we place our faith in Jesus Christ and begin to know God's fulness. Certainly everything else is but loss in view of this knowledge.

The King's Herald has endeavoured to capture highlights from the 63-64 school year which portray how students and faculty have come to a better knowledge of Jesus Christ and have experienced His resources. In future moments may these scenes produce thankfulness as we realize how the Lord strengthened our lives during this short period.

It is our prayer that each one who reads this annual may know God in a real and practical way.

Reflecting.

Too bad that string wouldn't stretch.

Isn't that a little extravagant on make-up?

Sisterly advice.

No, don't shave it all off!

Cheaper than gas?

God has a special place for you in His plan for world evangelism. To find it means a life of joyous enrichment. To miss it can mean an unsatisfied life, despite outward success.

Where do you fit in? Do you know?

If not, let us help you. May we send you our helpful booklet WHO SHOULD GO? and literature covering all phases of missionary work?

We will be happy to counsel you concerning the possibility of service on our fields; and pray with you for guidance. We invite you to write to us.
